

Resolution of
The Board of Supervisors of Ventura County
Honoring
Kristie Aki
“2023 Woman of the Year”
West Ventura County Business Alliance

Whereas, Kristie Aki is being recognized as the “2023 Woman of the Year” by the West Ventura County Business Alliance for her personal and professional success, and dedication to the betterment of the Camarillo community; and

Whereas, Kristie is founder and past president of the board for kidSTREAM, an emerging children's museum, that will open in Camarillo; and

Whereas, Kristie has a bachelor's in biology from the University of New Orleans and a master's in biological sciences from California Poly San Luis Obispo; and

Whereas, Kristie asked herself that simple question in 2013, “Why do I have to drive an hour and a half for a children's museum?”. A mother of three girls, it became Kristie's mission to bring a high-quality children's museum to Ventura County. She founded kidSTREAM and provided the spark to bring her vision to reality; and

Whereas, a former teacher, Kristie used her professional background in science and education and developed entrepreneurial business skills. Over the next few years, the board secured the site of the former Camarillo Public Library, incorporated as a nonprofit, and raised over a million dollars; and

Whereas, as work and fundraising continue for this 30,000 square foot hands-on museum, kidSTREAM has served over 50,000 children at community events, pop-ups and onsite programs. STREAM stands for science, technology, reading, engineering, arts and math; and

Whereas, backed by a dedicated board, staff, volunteers, and generous supporters, Kristie stepped down as president this year and is now a director emeritus.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Board of Supervisors of Ventura County commends Kristie Aki for her commitment to the betterment of our community in providing a children's museum. The Board further congratulates Kristie on receiving the West Ventura County Business Alliance “2023 Woman of the Year” recognition.
