This report also presents information related to outcomes of investigations closed during the referenced time period and provides an update about our Employee Relations and Resolution Program which employs organizational development interventions to improve strained interpersonal/workplace relations.

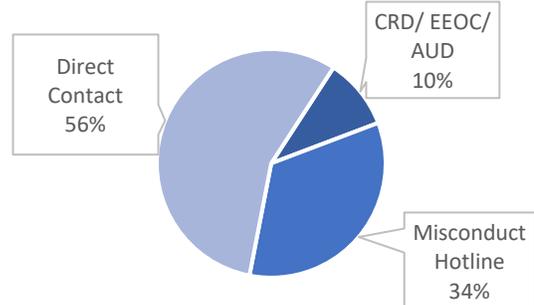

Although employees are encouraged to resolve concerns through their normal administrative channels whenever possible, we accept complaints on the Employee Misconduct Hotline 24 hours per day, seven days per week. This report compiles data from a variety of sources including the Hotline, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), California Civil Rights Department (CRD), direct contact, and the Auditor-Controller’s Office Fraud Hotline. As part of the County’s obligation to the community and its employees, we are committed to full, fair, and impartial investigations into allegations of employee misconduct.

Complaint Resolution and Misconduct Hotline

The County of Ventura believes employees should be able to voice concerns about tough workplace issues like harassment, discrimination, or discourteous workplace behavior. When appropriate, employees are encouraged to first discuss concerns with their supervisors, then their agency/department HR Representatives. If resolution is still not reached, more information and online reporting are available on the Complaint Resolution Webpage.
