Community Events

Remembering Borderline

- November 7th
Conejo Creek North
15:00-17:00
This gathering will be held at the Healing Garden at the location and will be attended by surviving victims and family members of those that lost their lives. Sheriff's Office personnel are also invited to attend.
- November 7th
Tarantula Hill
17:00-21:00
This event will be attended by surviving victims and family members of those who lost their lives. The family of the victims have specifically requested Sheriff's Office personnel to attend for conversation and positive remembrance of the victims.
- November 8th
Thousand Oaks Sheriff - East Valley Station
10:30 – 13:00
The November 8th event will be at East Valley Station. There will be a recognition of an oak tree given to us by Ron's son, Jordan, and a memorial rock with a plaque that will eternally remind us of Ron's heroism and sacrifice. Stonefire Grill has graciously catered meals for several hundred people following the commemoration.
