Eligible parents must have an open family reunification, family maintenance or family preservation case with Children & Family Services (CFS) at time of referral to the program.

The Parent Advocate Services program, herein known as “the Program,” will utilize a peer support model with the goal of improving parenting skills, sustaining intact families, promoting family reunification and reducing the likelihood of future abuse or neglect. Parents who have successfully navigated the child welfare system will provide support to and empower parents currently involved in the child welfare system. The Program will engage, educate, connect, mentor, support and heal families, with the goal of safely maintaining children in their own home.

The peer support model will be administered by a team consisting of Parent Partners and Parent Leaders. Parent Partners will deliver direct services (as listed above) and resources to clients and their families, while Parent Leaders, who in addition to delivering direct services, will provide consultation from the perspective of lived experience with the child welfare system. The macro level work of the Parent Leader (or Parent Leader Consultant) will include, but is not limited to, amplification of the parent voice, building and improvement of a family-oriented wellness system, and the administering of the ‘no wrong door approach’ and the Trauma-Informed Practice, etc.
