POLICY

The County of Ventura is organized and administered as a general law county. Under that general structure the County Executive Officer, reporting to the Board of Supervisors, is responsible for administering an effective and efficient government organization. The County Executive Office shall produce and maintain an up-to-date organizational chart that clearly and accurately sets forth the organizational authority and structural reporting relationships within County government. The structural organization of Ventura County is shown on the organizational chart on the following page. The executive group includes the following officials:

Elected Officials

Board of Supervisors (5 Districts)	County Clerk-Recorder	Treasurer-Tax Collector
Assessor	District Attorney
Auditor-Controller	Sheriff

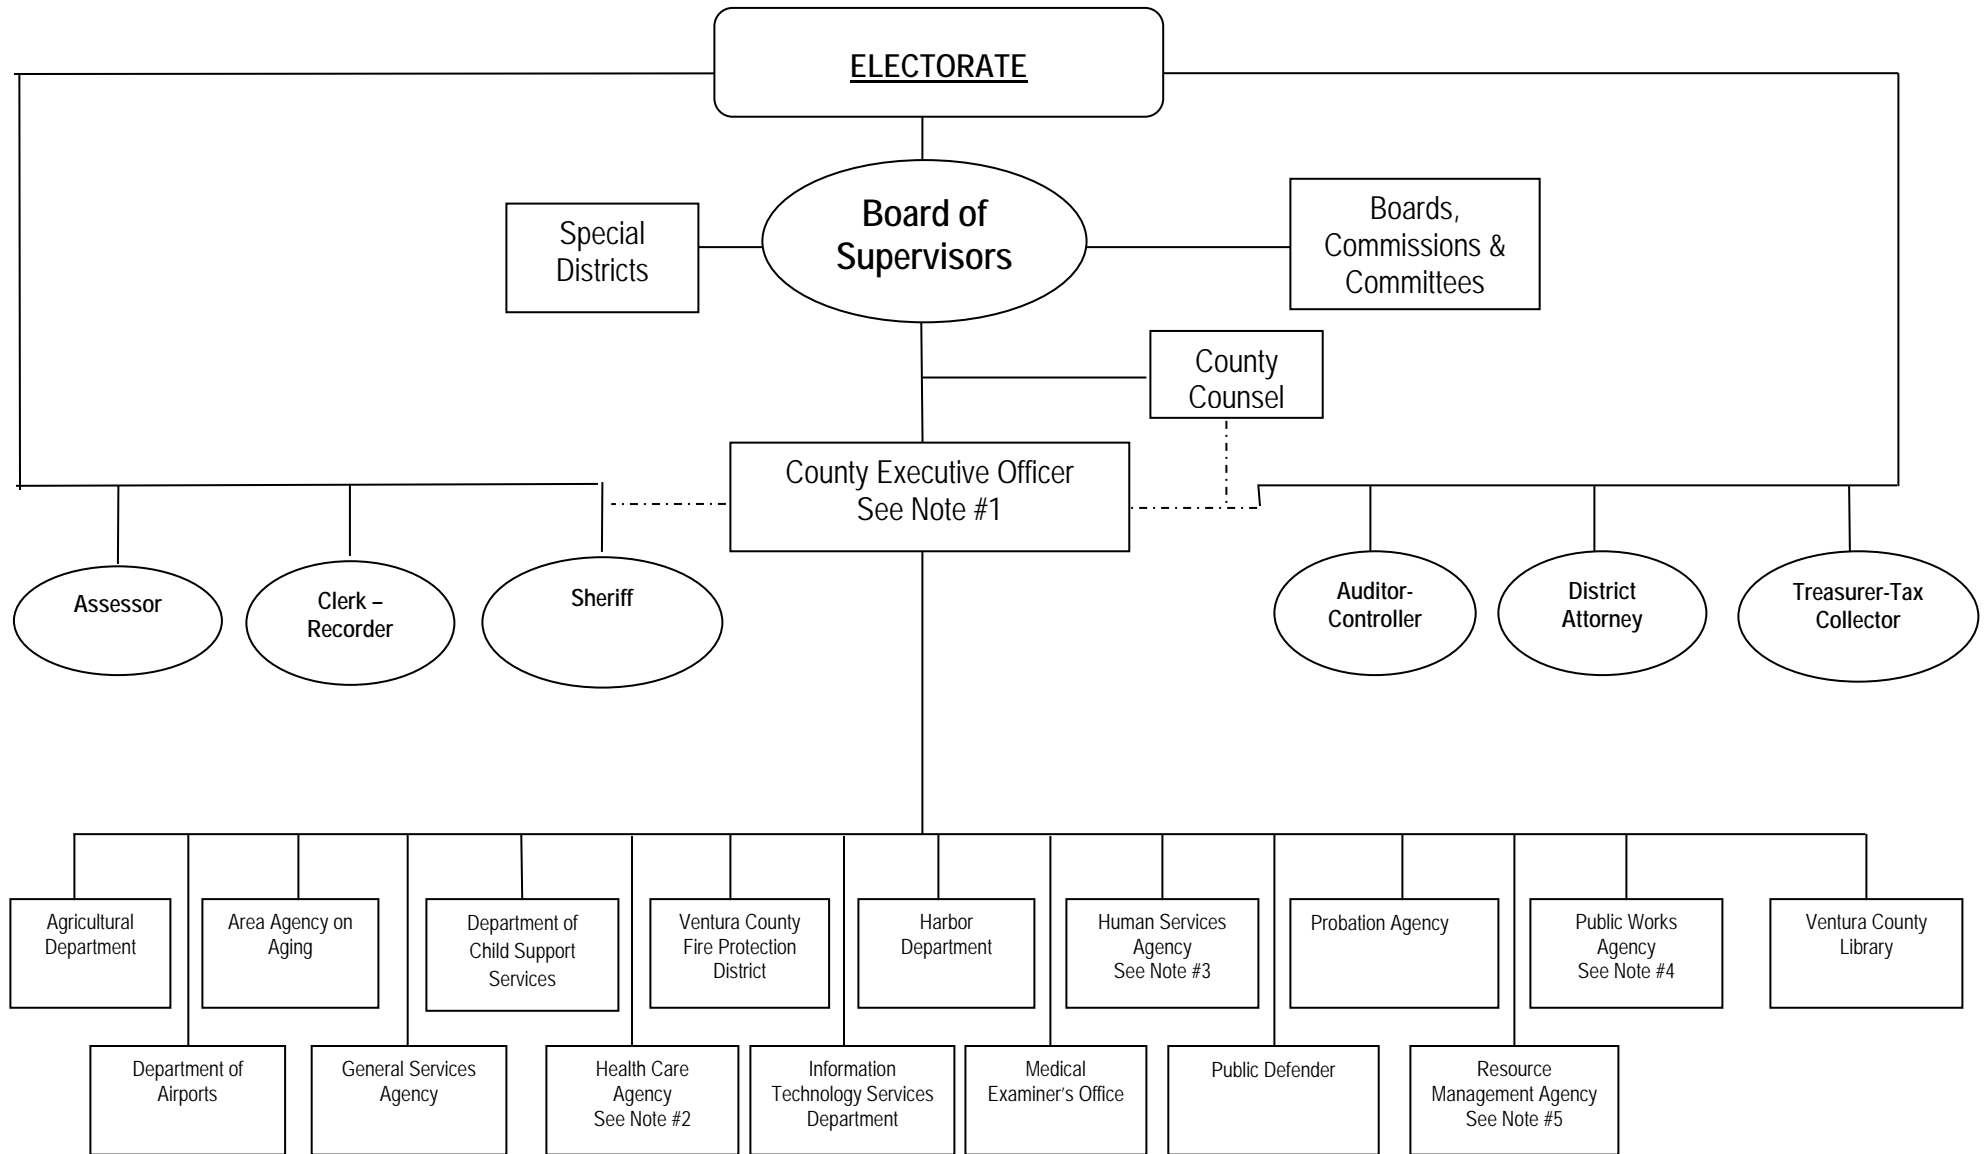

Appointed Officials (Agency/Department Heads of:)

Agricultural Department	General Services Agency	Probation Agency
Area Agency on Aging	Harbor Department	Public Defender
County Counsel	Health Care Agency	Public Works Agency
County Executive Office	Human Services Agency	Resource Management Agency
Department of Airports	Information Technology Serv.	Ventura County Library
Dept of Child Support Services	Medical Examiner's Office	Ventura County Fire Protection Dist.

PROCEDURE

The executive group meets once a month as the Executive Committee. The purpose of the Executive Committee is to provide a regularly scheduled forum for discussion and dissemination of information concerning countywide policies and issues and to provide an avenue for timely communication of expert advice and information on management issues that cross agency-department lines. The CEO, who acts as the chairperson of the Executive Committee, may invite other individuals for special presentations.
