

The seal of the County of Ventura, California, is a circular emblem. It features a central figure of a man in a white robe, likely representing a historical or religious figure. The background is divided into four quadrants, each containing different symbols: a building, a ship, a gear, and a landscape. The text "COUNTY OF VENTURA" is written in a yellow arc at the top, and "CALIFORNIA" is written in a yellow arc at the bottom. The seal is semi-transparent and serves as a background for the text.
