

The seal of the County of Ventura, California, is a circular emblem. It features a central figure of a man in a white robe, likely a missionary, holding a staff. The seal is divided into four quadrants by a cross. The top-left quadrant shows a building, the top-right shows a hammer and a pickaxe, the bottom-left shows a lighthouse, and the bottom-right shows a sailboat. The words "COUNTY OF VENTURA" are written in a semi-circle at the top, and "CALIFORNIA" is written in a semi-circle at the bottom. The year "1873" is inscribed on a banner at the bottom of the central figure.
