

The seal of the County of Ventura, California, is a circular emblem. It features a central figure of a man in a white robe, likely a historical or religious figure, holding a staff. The background of the seal is divided into four quadrants, each containing a different symbol: a lighthouse, a ship, a fish, and a gear. The words "COUNTY OF VENTURA" are written in a semi-circle at the top, and "CALIFORNIA" is written in a semi-circle at the bottom. The seal is surrounded by a yellow border with small floral motifs.
