

The seal of the County of Ventura, California, is a circular emblem. It features a central figure of a man in a white robe, likely a historical figure, holding a staff. The background is divided into four quadrants: the top-left shows a building, the top-right shows a ship, the bottom-left shows a gear, and the bottom-right shows a group of people. The words "COUNTY OF VENTURA" are written in a yellow arc at the top, and "CALIFORNIA" is written in a yellow arc at the bottom, separated by small floral motifs.
