

The seal of the County of Ventura, California, is a circular emblem. It features a central figure of a man in a white robe, holding a staff and a book. The seal is divided into four quadrants, each containing a different symbol: a ship, a fish, a gear, and a building. The words "COUNTY OF VENTURA" are written in a circle around the top, and "CALIFORNIA" is written around the bottom. There are small floral motifs separating the top and bottom text.
