

The seal of the County of Ventura, California, is a circular emblem. It features a central figure of a man in a white robe holding a book, likely representing a historical or religious figure. Surrounding this central figure are various symbols: a building, a ship, a fish, a gear, and a cross. The words "COUNTY OF VENTURA" are written in a yellow arc at the top, and "CALIFORNIA" is written in a yellow arc at the bottom. The background of the seal is divided into four quadrants with different colors: red, blue, green, and yellow.
