

The seal of Ventura County, California, is a circular emblem. It features a central figure of a man in a white robe, likely a historical or religious figure, holding a staff. The seal is divided into four quadrants by a cross. The top-left quadrant shows a lighthouse, the top-right shows a hammer and a gear, the bottom-left shows a ship's mast, and the bottom-right shows a fish. The words "COUNTY OF VENTURA" are written in a semi-circle at the top, and "CALIFORNIA" is written in a semi-circle at the bottom. The seal is surrounded by a yellow border with small floral motifs.
