Dear Chair LaVere and Supervisors,

I write in support of naming the County's park on Lewis Road in honor of Supervisor Linda Parks. Not only does "Parks Park" have a nice ring to it, it also is a perfect way of recognizing two decades of distinguished service by a standout Supervisor who has brought so much to the citizens of Ventura County. I have personally witnessed her successful endeavors including Growing Works nursery, the Wildlife Corridor Zone and the Wildlife bridge, the creation of three Municipal Advisory Councils, her work in disaster response and recovery for which she was awarded recognitions by the District Attorney and Small Business Administration, and I participated with her on her NAMI Walk Might Oaks Team, the Clean Power Alliance that she helped create, and fighting to clean up Santa Susana Field Lab. Supervisor Parks has championed funding and development of the new park being built on Lewis Road for vulnerable populations and naming it in her honor is most appropriate.

Sincerely,

Claudia Bill-de la Peña
